What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

Lower risk

Higher risk

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 1 day.

You may not be able to sell your product easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 7 out of 7, which is the highest risk class.

Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency than the underlying asset, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance scenarios

Returns depend on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment/product. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances. * The calculation is based on the notional of the contract (in this example 100,000 SEK).

What happens if SEB is unable to pay out?

Costs over time

These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. ### How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 1 day

The actual holding period can vary due to favourable/unfavourable market conditions and the leverage of your product. This product is so called open ended, i.e. it does not have any pre-determined redemption date. The product is designed for a very short-term investment with a recommended holding period, since it will be redeemed when the price of the underlying reaches the knock-out level and since it leverages the price of the underlying which could result in large losses..

This product can be sold at any point in time when SEB quotes bid and, if possible, offer prices on the given stock exchange or via Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ). Even if this product is liquid, the price might have a significant impact how much you get back when you sell it.

You may be able to cash in earlier, however, you will have to pay significant extra costs if you do so. For further information take a closer look at the section "What are the costs?", One-off costs, Exit costs.
